

So good to me

Words & Music: Gus Eyre

Read me a line in a letter you'd written
And all of my world tumbled down
How could I refuse ever to listen
When you have been so good to me?

I remember the time so clearly and often
It's buried deep down in my soul
The treasure of life made my heart soften
Lord you've been so good to me.

*So good to me,
So good to me
Lord, you've been so good to me.
You opened my eyes, I clearly see,
Lord you've been so good to me.*

And when it all rolls down,
And the Author walks on to the stage,
Then the world will bow down,
To the King at the end of the age.

So glad I read me a line that you'd written you loved me so much that you gave
Your one precious Son to a cross and a tomb
Lord, you've been so good to me.

So good to me.....
