

Tonight

Words and Music: Thomas Bleyel

23.7.2005

Hello and "hi" to everyone.

I hope you're fine and have some fun.

I hope you've had a real fine day.

But when you'd come here with tears in your eyes
or awful thoughts deep inside your mind

I hope that you can let them go away.

*Ooooooh, I hope you will be blessed tonight,
oooooh, by the wind of God.*

*Ooooooh, I pray you'll come into the light,
that shines down from the cross on Golgatha.*

Before I came here to sing some tunes

I took some time to look at my wounds realized again I'm a sinful man.

I asked the Lord to forgive my sins,

to wash away these muddy things that I might be a blessing for you tonight.

Ooooh ooooh I hope you will be blessed today,

Ooooh ooooh that all your fears might go away.
