

A light at the end of the tunnel

There's a light at the end of the tunnel
A river at the end of the stream
Peace at the end of the battle
And love like you've never dreamed

Hope that won't disappoint you
Like sunshine after the rain
Faith that is truly believing
And joy that you can't explain

*Long is the road, narrow the way,
Hard is the climb, every single day
Barren is the ground, tough is the task
Keep on moving you'll get home at last.*

There's a light at the end of the tunnel
A river at the end of the stream
Peace at the end of the battle
And love like you've never dreamed
